A remote cove,
far away from CSUMB...

Is all this silliness about passwords really necessary? I'm the only woman on this ship anyway...

Oh, the "pirate code" riddles again... whatever. Anyway, another crewman was slacking off again... We really should do something about morale...

One does not simply ignore the pirate code...

'sigh' What did they expect when they signed on to this ship, a free ride towards fame and fortune? They need to learn to be patient... we can't just raid every ship or town we come across.

So...

Should I call for a meeting?

hehehe...

These meetings always turn out to be a blast!

Aye. I'll be out in an hour or so. We might get some work out of this crew yet!

As you know, this is the most democratic ship on the seas. Majority vote decides our next course of action!

Now then, I cast my 54 votes for a good old fashioned merchant raid!

All else in favor?

Some pirates you lot are...

Er, Option 2:
All in favor of a week in port?

not even ONE? guys...

Yeah! Merchant raid!

Where did we find all these slackers anyway?

Really, now?

Fine... How many of you are there again? Last time it was 53...

53, 54, 55...

How troublesome...

Wait, what's Captain doing?

Um, is that thing lo--

BWAHAHAHAHAHA!!!

BOOM!!

Hmm, 53.
With that veto,
It looks like...

I WIN!

MAKE READY TO SET SAIL!!!

Hang on... where was
MY vote?
...dummit.

wha... what's a veto?

Who cares? Get to your post or you could be next!
